PREFACE

The following pages describe several collections, including a $50, 1851 Augustus Humbert, of a variety not in the great Zabriskie Collection; also, an 1876 $3, one of the greatest rarities in the U. S. series.

There are also a number of very good and scarce coins in the several collections here catologued, and it is an opportunity for collectors who desire good but moderate priced coins to enrich their cabinets.

Catalogues, priced, with the prices each lot sells for, supplied after the sale for 35 cents, cash, with order.

I will be pleased to receive and execute bids entrusted to my care for the usual 10% on the amount purchased. This sale follows the two days' sale of the great Zabriskie Collection, catalogue of which is now ready for free distribution.

These coins will be exhibited at the auction rooms on the 4th as well as the 5th instant, 9.30 A. M. to 1 P. M., so that they may be viewed by buyers attending the Zabriskie sale.

THREE DOLLARS.

475 1876 Proof that has been in circulation, the field slightly dulled. A beautiful specimen of this great rarity—the second rarest date of this denomination, and of which but 45 were coined! This coin has been on the want list of many prominent collectors for several years without a specimen forthcoming to fill the gap, and it should command a liberal figure, as it will certainly be one of the high valued coins of the future. Of the 45 coined, I believe it safe to say that today not over 10 are known; and it being the year of the Centennial of the Declaration of Independence, people who were not collectors would use them for souvenirs and gift pieces, but even so, its rarity is assured by the small number coined—one of the smallest issues of any denomination.
